UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

RESPONSIBILITY OF A NATIONAL BANK-AN INSUR-ANCE DECISION-MISCELLANEOUS.

Washington, March 31 .- A decision was endered by the Supreme Court of the United States to-day in a case which involves an interesting question as to the responsibility of a National bank for certificates of its stock fraudulently issued by one of its officers for his own benefit, without the knowledge of the directors or other officers of the bank and without record on the bank's books. The case is that of Caroline A. Moores, plaintiff in error, against the Citizens' National Bank, of Piqua, Ohio. In error to the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of Ohio. The facts or ease are briefly as follows : Mrs. Moores, the plaintin error, lent a sum of money to Robert B. Moores for own use, and received from him as security for its repament a certificate of stock to an equal amount in a National Bank, of which he was cashier, bearing the corporate seal and the genuine signature of himself as eashier and of the president, and certifying that Mrs. Moores was the owner of that amount of stock, "trans ferable only on the books of the bank on the surrender of this certificate," as was in fact provided by its by laws The president and cashler were authorized to issue new certificates on the surrender of old ones, and the president had signed and left with the cashier blank certifi cates to be used if necessary in his absence, and the cer-tificate issued by the cashier to Mrs. Moores was one of these certificates. Robert B. Moores, the cashier, had formerly been and appeared on the books of the bank to be still the owner of stock to a large amount; but there was no other evidence that he owned such stock or that he surrendered any certificate thereof at the time of

The Court holds: First, that the bank was not liable to Mrs. Moores for the value of the certificate; second, that the action could not be supported by evidence that in one or two other instances stock was issued by the cashier without any certificates being surrendered, and that the chares held by Robert B. Moores, and which there was evidence to show had been pledged by him to other persons before the issue of the certificate to Mrs. Moores, were afterward transferred to the president, with the approval of the directors, to secure a debt due from the said Robert B. Moores to the bank, without further evid ence that the issue of such certificates by the cashier was known or recognized by the other officers of the bank. The judgment of the Court below is therefore affirmed. Opinion by Justice Gray, Justice Bradley dissenting.

issuing the certificate to Mrs. Moores or that the bank authorized or ratified or received any benefit from the

A decision was also rendered by the Court in the case of the New-England Mutual Life Insurance Company, plaintiff in error, against Stephen E. Woodworth, adminstrator. In error to the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of Illinois. The Court holds: First, that a policy of life insurance issued by a sompany incorporated in one State, payable to the assured, his executors or administrators, is assets for the purpose of founding administration upon his estate in another State, in which the corporation at and since the time of his death does business, and, as required by the statutes of that State, has an agent on whom process against it may be served; second, that under section 18, chapter 3, of the Revised Statutes of Illinois of 1874, a husband is en titled to administration on the estate of his wife if she left property in Illinois. Letters of administration which state that the intestate had at the time of death personal property in the State are sufficient evidence of the au-thority of the administrator to sue in that State in the absence of proof that there was no such property. The judgment of the Circuit Court is affirmed. Opinion by Justice Blatchford. Other cases decided to-day were as follows:

MR. GREEN'S RECEIVERSHIP.

ARGUMENTS ON THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S MOTION TO REMOVE HIM. Ten law books, twenty-nine rolls of documents, five grip sacks, eleven memorandum books, three overcoats, four silk hats, three ink-stands and four pen-holders made the stock in trade yesterday of ten lawyers who gathered before Justice Van Brunt in the Special Term of the Supreme Court, to make arguments on the motion of the Attorney-Ger and to remove Ashbol Green as receiver of the North Kiver Construction Company, or to have an associate receiver appointed. The day was especially devoted to the argument of William M. Evarts, the counsel of ex-Judge Green. John E. Parsons and Charles F. Alexander, the counsel of Charles F. Woerishoffer, at woose suit Mr. Green was made anelliary receiver of the many's property in this State, sat near Mr. Evarts. F. N. Bangs and F. L. Stet-son were at the other end of the table, in the interest of the moving parties. Benjamin H. Bristow looked out for $55,000 for the Albany and Remischaer Steel and Iron Company, while Charles G. Woodbury was equally alert for Washburn & Moen, who have been restrained from suing the construction come my for fences furnished by them. Howard Mansfel appeared for the company. Four inhabitants of New-Jersey, who stood in a corner of the room, were supposed to represent the interests of that

State.

Mr. Evarts urged that there was no statutory authority under which the Attorney-General could seek for the removal of Receiver Green or an ention officially against a foreign corporation. To prove this position, he began reading from the Code. The scribt to show that no authority could be found from section 1,731 to section 1,812 for the interference of the Attorney-General in the fences, steek from bridges, they or other contributory material of the Construction Company. While Mr. Evarts was encaged in this exposition of his subject, Mr. Hangs grasped a pocket edition of the Code and primaged into it. Mr. Evarts had down the Code and exclaimed as bedropped his grasses: "What principle of the regular administration of justice gives the Attorney-General the right of action architect forcein corporation?" He slowly passed his graze from lawyer to lawyer but got no response. Exjudge Comstock, of the counsel for the moving parties, entered the room at this point. He seated nimself near Mr. Evarts, held his sik hat in his right hand, put the foreinger of his left hand to his temple and became meditative. Mr. Evarts next urged that the New-Jorsey receivership was lawful, adding: "As the receivership in this State is anofflary, it will add the operation of the foreign receivership." He then paid a high tribute to Mr. Green's character, and asserted that he had resided in this city for four winters, and passed the rest of his time in New-Jersey. That was not worse than to live in Vermont. "If Judge Green is net after the passe of the incoming section of the control of the passed the rest of his time in New-Jersey." This pleased the four harmless men in the corner and made all the other lawyers shudder. "A good receiver in New-Jersey," he added, "other things being equal, is a good receiver here. The very point of a receivership is that creditors shall not be left to exercise their own interests, but that the interests of all should be considered."

"The debts are not so large," said Mr. Evarts later, "but that Mr. Evaris urged that there was no statutory authority

THE HAMERSLEY WILL CONTEST. The contest over the will of Louis C. Hamersley came to trial yesterday before Surro, ate Rollins. Mr. Hamersley left a life interest in his estate to his wife, the perty on her death to go to the male issue of the testator's cousm, J. Hoeker Hamersley. In default of such is vie, Mrs. Hamersley was instructed to will the estate to such charitable institutions as she thought best. After William Spigler, the former body-servant of Louis C. He mersley, had testified, Charles E. Strong, a lawyer, testhe to the drawing of the will. Dr. George A. Peters, the family physician, said that he had noticed a pe-cular formation of Mr. Hamersley's head. He was a wan en dur formation of Mr. Hamersley's head. He was a mean early influenced and of amiable disposition. William F. Oakey, Mr. Hamersley's life-long friend, started to give a history of the testator from the age of five years, but was finally limited to the period of twenty-one. He stated that Mr. Hamersley had a peculiar conformation of the skull, which bordered on deformity. He was an exceedingly dull man, having the mind of a child rather than that of a man. He was unable to study and was bright in nothing. Mr. Hamersley was easily dominated by a superior mind.

The case was adjourned until April 9.

A VERDICT REVERSED.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31. - The Supreme Court to-day reversed the judgment of Common Pleas Court No. 4 in a suit for damages brought by James W. Lauderbach against the People's Passenger Railway Com. pany. While riding in one of the company's cera, Mr. Lauderbach was injured in his right arm, which protruded from the window, and was struck by a car going in an opposite direction. He obtained a verdict of $9,000 damages. The Supreme Court held that, as Mr. Landerbach sustained the injury while his arm was outside the window, he was not entitled to damages unless it could be shown that the member was forced outside by a collision or other agent for which the company was responsible. A new trial was awarde.

THE RIGHTS OF A DEFENDANT.

THE ARREST OF A NEW-YORKER FORBIDDEN BY A PENNSYLVANIA COURT.

PHILADEL PHIA, March 31.-Paul Gmehlin, a plane manufacturer of New-York, was to-day found guilty of assault and battery on Colonel Gray, of this city. The bill charged aggravated assault and battery, but the jury returned a verdict of simple assault and battery. A fine of $100 was imposed, which was immediately paid. In the meantime, Colonel Gray had instituted a suit for damages for assault and battery, and a sheriff's officer was in court ready to serve the writ. The counsel for Mr. Gmehlin objected to the service of the writ, on the ground that it would be a violation of the law to take him into custody. Judge Arnold said from the bench that those who came into court, either as witnesses or defendants, were entitled to come and go under the protection of the law, without arrest or any other cause.

The defendant was about leaving the court-room when it was reported to the court that Colonel Gray had instructed the officer that he could arrest Mr. Gmehlm as soon as he got upon the train. Judge Arnold spoke in a decided manner as to the right of the defendant to be protected from arrest, while upon the attendance of the court and of the court officers to protect him until he got upon the train. Judge Arnold held that Mr. Gmehlm was not only entitled to be protected until he got upon the train, but, being a resident of the State of New-York, he was entitled to be protected until the lines of the State were crossed, and he ordered that it should be done. The defendant was about leaving the court-room

MONDAY, March 31-P. M. The new week has opened at the Stock Exchange with some general depression in all the markets. The support of the share speculation to-day was less pronounced than it recently has been, but the bears," who now all the time are suspicious of a trap (because there is no general belief in the theory that there has been liquidation of the late speculation and a distribution of the chaned stocks), made no determined demonstration against values; their movements are governed by an unusual degree of cantion, and their courage does not yet permit them to sail in any but shallow waters. Hence to-day's decline was a sagging rather than a drop, with small tradings at each fractional change. St. Paul, with transactions in 52,800 shares, furnished nearly one quart r of the day's whose business, and it declined from 87% to 85% at 85%. Delaware, Luckwanna and Western was second with 34,450 shares, and it declined from 1211s to 123. Union Pacific was third in point of activity (25,725 shares) and it declined from 74% to 7358. Western Union, with 15,425 shares, was fourth and declined from 715s to 7034@707s Northwestern was fifth with 13,875 shares, and declined from 1174 to 116 a 1163s; and Oregon and Transcontinental was sixth with 12,650 shares, and declined from 2112 to 2034. We have named six stocks that contributed 155,000 shares to the day's total of 221,570 shares in all stocks; hence it goes without saying that the general speculation was exceedingly dull. The stocks that were best sustained-those that were held nearest to Saturday evening's figure-were Central and Hudson, Lake Shore, Canada Southern, and Erie; but the dealings in them were small. The Northern Pacifics lost that distinctive feature of exceptional strength which they showed last week, and the preferred stock declined 1 per cent. The Southwesterns were dull but lower, and of these Missouri Pacific shows a final decline of 13s per cent. The market closed dull and weak at about the lowest figures of the day, and that without a rumor of a new disturbing element, beyond such effect as may have been exerted by the Cincinnati turbulence. The business in State bonds was confined to small sales of Alabama, class B, at 103, Georgia gold 7s at 11434 and Missouri 6s, 1886, at 1061s. Of city bank stocks America sold at 171 and Republic at

Government bonds were quiet, but prices yielded with extremely small transactions; thus the bids for the 4s declined 1s per cent on sales of $125,000.

The demand for railway bonds seems to be diminshing rather than increasing; that is, there is a smaller desire indicated to pick up the first-class issues than before has been noted, but there is no pressure to sell any amount of them. Some of the low-priced issues, which are believed to be good and comparatively cheap with prices ruling for stocks, show more firmness on a fair amount of transactions. For instance, the West Shore and Buffalo first mortgage 5s to-day, after a decline of 3s to 545s, rose, against the general tendency of the market, to 55% and closed at 55%; and East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia consol 5s after 7412 were firm at 75. New-York, Chicago and St. Louis first 6s also were strong at 4 advance to 10612. Erie secono consols were dull and 14 off at 88%. Chesapeake and Ohio firsts, series B, were 12 lower at 10412, and the currency 6s wet off 14 at 55, . Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg consol 5s, after 765s, were stendy at 77. Missouri, Kansas and Texas general as were up 13s to 711 for a small lot. New-Jersey Central consors were 14 lower at 11634. Mobile and Ohio firsts were strong at at 10812. Canada Southern first 5s were steady at 1013s@1014. New-York, Lackawanna and Western seconds sold at 9922@9934. Midland New-Jersey firsts were off 1 per cent at 99. Northwestern and Burlington and Quincy debenture 5s each were 1s easier at 97% Quincy debenture 5s each were 's easier at '9.74 and 975s respectively. Texas and Pacific incomes, after 54, declined to 534, and firsts, Rio Grande division, were off 14 to 734. Northern Pacific firsts were 3s lower at 1014s.

The Sub-Treasury to-day gained on balance $374,286, made up by a coin gain of $664,271, less a currency loss of $289,985. The day's operations covered: Receipts, $1,254,112; payments, $879,826. Currency balance, $9,838,294; coin balance, $121,386,791.

The Creating those $108,519.035; balances, $4,877,779.

The United States Treasury at Washington to-day received $390,000 National bank notes for redemption. The customs receipts were $658,420 and the internal revenue receipts $811,983.

The foreign exchanges continue to be extremely full, but rates are firm. Whatever prospects there were of a better supply of commercial bills because of the decline in the price of wheat in our markets to-day were dissipated by a decline in the European markets that leaves the difference between the markets of the two Continents nearly as great as ever it was. Quotations for exchange for actual business are as follows; Bankers bills, $4.874 and $4.8034 for long and short sterling respectively; 5.17 and 5.155s for francs; 951s and 9534 for reichmarks; 401s and 40% for guilders.

The London market was strong for British consult and the figures are as per cent higher at 15 3-16 for both money and account. United 5 less 4s after 126 were unchanged from Saturday at 120 1-16, and the 41s were 1-16 higher at 116, Quotations for American railways were meagre and irregular, but generally lower. The Bank of England lost 4:30,000 but for on balance.

THE PETROLLUM MARKET.

Taking it all in all, the monthly report of the development wor in the oil regions in March is not favorable to the "builts" on a comparison with the Febis put at 266, an increase of 39 over Pebruary. Aithough is put at 200, an increase of 30 order 1 cornary. Antibulgation average duily new production was only 15 barrels per well, against 1742 barrels in February, the gross new production is increased 74 barrels. The number of wells drilling decreased 11, but there was an the significance of the report lies in the fact that it indicates a slow, although small, growth in the new yield since the beginning of the year. The figures since January I are as follows:

| Welts com- Wells Rigs up | New prod. Av. per | 1884, | pleted. drilling & ideg. | bhis. | well. | January | 229 | 270 | 109 | 3,134 | 13,340 | February | 227 | 262 | 212 | 4,025 | 15 |

Compared with March 1883, the report shows an in crease of 120 in the wells completed, of 51 in the well drilling and of 7 in the rips up and building. The new production, however, shows a decrease of 88 barrels and the average per well is 13 1-6 barrels less. The compari

The decimas of the two exchanges amounted to only a little over 13,000,000 barrels. At the opening traders showed a disposition to buy and prices soon rose to 91.5 a miner 944 year assumingly ingot. The advance was not sustained, and by the early afternoon prices had fallen to 55% years. Floctuations were small for the rest of the day but near the close prices were moved up quickly, and the final quotations were 94% and 94% cents. The market ended sheady with traders generally look of an upward reaction. The range of prices and me total dealings were as follows:

The clearances reported from Oil City were 10,308,000, and from Bradford 7,216,000 barrels.

The refined market was quiet and unchanged at 83s cents per gallon.
